

Dear Sirs,

The above picture is Korean 'Discount Japan' campaign. Please look at the inside of the orange circles in the pic.

The second picture indicates that these Korean women were Korean Military Comfort Women in the Korean War(1950~1953), since you can see the English words, "OFF-LIMIT" and "KEEP OUT" on the wall!! Japan didn't join the Korean War!!!

One of the EX-comfort woman whose name is 金福童 is in this picture. 金福童 told a lie, "The Japanese soldiers treated me so badly in the Korean war" in the "Discount Japan" campaign held by Koreans in Paris France in September 18th in 2013. Japan didn't join the Korean War. Also EX-comfort woman whose name is 李容洙 said, "I was forced to ride a jeep in Korea by Japanese soldiers", but Japan didn't have any jeeps in Korean Peninsula in the World War II. Another EX-comfort woman said that she was very busy for a Christmas time. But Japanese people didn't celebrate Christmas at that time. Korean comfort women must have been busy for the U.S soldiers during Korean War!!

Actually, some ladies were sold by their parents to brothels owners secretly. Therefore, Parents received much money from brothels owners, and daughters didn't know the facts. They were forced to work as prostitutes,

Japan is criticized over the so called comfort women problem which was happened in the war. Koreans against Japan over the comfort women issue said that they, prostitutes for Japanese military, were forced into prostitution as a form of sexual slavery by the Japanese military organization. Korean-Americans built a Comfort Women statue in Glendale in California in 2013. The Comfort Women story is so sad. But criminals were not the Japanese soldiers. Bruce Cumings wrote in his book as follows: "Many Korean women were mobilized to serve (as prostitutes) by Korean men." Many researchers and scholars have studied the issues, but what they found were very different from the Korean accusations. Please read some newspaper article which were published in wartime.

(1)Japanese police in Korea rescued about 50 women who were being mobilized as prostitutes to North China and Manchuria by a Korean human trafficking gang, published in 1939 March 28 by the Dong-a Ilbo newspaper.

(2)Japanese police arrested Korean human trafficking gang for buying and selling Korean people in a Korean village. 4 ladies were rescued. Published in 1936 May 14 by the毎日新報/毎日申報(????) newspaper.

(3)Japanese police in Korea saved more than 100 Korean women who were kidnapped by brokers of a big Korean human trafficking group, published in 1939 August 31 by the Dong-a Ilbo newspaper.

(4)According to the毎日新報/毎日申報(????) newspaper, published in 1936 July 9, Japanese police rescued many women who were forced into prostitutions by Korean.

Why do you believe what Koreans say?

Why do you ignore what Japanese say?

(5)2000 Korean women work as prostitutions at Shanghai China. This fact defames Korea. However, we can't take any action because they sell bodies willingly for the cause of economic reasons. Published in 1939 August 31 by the Dong-a Ilbo newspaper.

(6)Japanese police arrested a top official of Korean human trafficking group. The group kidnaps young women and sells to brothels. Published in 1933 July 1 by the Dong-a Ilbo newspaper.

(7)Japanese police in Korea rescued Korean women who are being mobilized to brothels by Korean human trafficking gangs, published in 1936 February 14 by the 毎

(8)A Japanese woman was rescued in Korea by Japanese police. Korean human trafficking group, which is called a Virgin Trade, tried to sell the women to China. Published in 1939 August 5 by the Dong-a Ilbo newspaper.

(9)According to the 毎日新報/毎日申報(????) newspaper in 1939 March 28, Korean human trafficking group was nabbed by Japanese police. The group sold about 100 women.

Bruce Cumings wrote in his book as follows: "Many Korean women were mobilized to serve (as prostitutes) by Korean men. Also, many Korean newspapers wrote the kidnapping were happened in Korea in war time, and the kidnappers were Korean men. The Korean comfort women were cheated by Korean men who said they are the Japanese. Some facts say ladies were sold by their parents to brothels owners secretly.

Don't believe what Koreans say!

Yours sincerely,
Asuka Saori
